We sincerely appreciate your business!

I hope you are enjoying our newsletter as much as we are. This month I would like to make you aware of The Wakanheza Project. What is it you ask?

Have you ever been in a public place like a grocery store, a library, or a mall and seen a parent struggling with their children, trying to keep them well behaved? Have you watched that situation escalate? Haven you ever BEEN that parent?

The Wakanheza Project is a community-wide effort that provides tools and strategies to help us effectively respond in these every-day situations and prevent them from happening in the first place, by creating welcoming environments for our children, teens, and families.
